The way that games were to me when I was a kid. When I was a kid growing up I loved to play games with my sister. We always use to play Life, Monopoly, SlapJack, and all those other fun games like that. Like every day when me and my sister got home from school I always asked her if she wanted to play a game with me. She always said yes. Because she loved to play games. Her favorite game was Life she loved to play Life.

Once in a while I asked her if we could play something else for once she said yes. Because she was getting kind of it so I said lets play monopoly or something. She said that would be alright. So I asked her what game she wanted to play she didnt know wich one she told me to pick. I said ok lets play monopoly.

When my sister asked me to play SlapJack I told her I didnt want to because it was the most boaringest game I have ever played It isnt fun at all. All you do is slap a stupid card IF it has a Jack on it. Thats why I think it is so boaring.

When I was little I liked to play games like monopoly, life, dumb old SlapJack and now that I am older I like to play things like basketball and football and that is the difference between the things I do now and the things I did.
